OVERVIEW

The Cutting Room Floor is a fast-paced, thinky card game where players take on the role of movie editors, cutting, rearranging, and assembling footage to create their very own movie masterpiece.

Each turn, one player selects an action card, and everyone at the table performs that action. With six shared actions to choose from, every turn offers a chance to improve your film, disrupt your opponents, and plan your next big move. Build sets and runs to score points, rearrange or eject your own or other players' scene cards, and flip the script by rotating cards to create more advantageous combinations.

When the deck runs out, it's time for the final cut! Players can combine their sets and runs for a film-length bonus, plus bonuses for having the most of a genre in their films. Have you created an Oscar-worthy drama, a laugh-out-loud comedy, an action-packed spectacle, or a gruesome horror flick? Designed for 2–5 players and playing in around 30–45 minutes, The Cutting Room Floor combines simple card-game mechanics with satisfying strategic decisions and a creative, scene stealing finale.
